

AT SPOOKY SCHOOL

Hanayo T.

Kinley is a girl who wears a red bow everyday, and she likes to play with her friends. In her class, one of friends is a kind of bossy, and Kinley is always mad on her.

One day at school, all kids went there and Kinley was late and a last person to come school.

When Kinley came to her classroom, she didn't see anyone. She thought all the people disappeared. Kinley sat on her desk in her classroom.

"Ahhhhh!"

Kinley was surprised because she found a ghost under her table. Kinley was scared that she thought it was a ghost school. There were ghosts each of friends' tables in her classroom. Almost all of the ghosts have familiar faces.

"Why did you scream?!"

One of the ghosts shouted to Kinley, he looks like her bossy class mate. Kinley thought all the ghosts look familiar because they have her classmates' faces.

She ran out of the school and she saw that outside all of her classmates came back. They were not ghost anymore. She knows when we are inside of the school we became ghosts and when we are outside of school we are not ghosts.

She thought it was magic. She ran back to her home, she told her mom what she saw.

"That can not be true." Mom said.

"I can take you to school" Kinley said and they went to school.

When they arrived to school, they tried to go inside. And her mom saw a lot of ghosts there.

"Oh Kinley!" her mom shouted,

"You are a ghost too!"

Kinley now knows she became a ghost when she is in the school!

Kinley is not scared the ghosts anymore. She and her ghost classmates play and study together there.
