

Terror at Nechako Plaza

By Jacob D.

One Friday when I was coming home from school, I heard strange sounds coming from the closed store near the skate park. I decided to go check it out. When I went closer, I saw a bright light shining from inside. Then I peeked inside the door, I saw a shadowy figure inside. I went in further and saw a swirly portal. A weird creature had come out. It had four legs like a horse and a mane like a lion. When it started to attack me, I was really scared. It started charging at me and I was barely dodging it, but then I saw that there was a broken table by the wall. I ran in front of it and the creature charged at me again. At the last second, I jumped out of the way. It slammed into the table and disappeared.

The end.
